TABLE OF CONTENTS

LIST OF FIGURES ...........................................................................................................ii
LIST OF TABLES .............................................................................................................ii
PREFACE .......................................................................................................................iii

CHAPTER ONE. NUMIC MYTHOLOGIES .................................................................1
By L. Daniel Myers

CHAPTER TWO. WESTERN MONO MYTHOLOGY: A NUMIC ORAL
TRADITION IN CALIFORNIA .......................................................................................19
By Christopher Loether

CHAPTER THREE. IDEOLOGY AND IDENTITY: WESTERN SHOSHONI
“CANNIBAL” MYTH AS ETHNONATIONAL NARRATIVE ........................................29
By Richard Clemmer

CHAPTER FOUR. MOUNTAIN SHEEP IN THE SKY: ORION’S BELT
IN GREAT BASIN MYTHOLOGY ....................................................................................43
By Catherine S. Fowler

CHAPTER FIVE. ENCOUNTERS AT THE BOUNDARY OF WILDERNESS
AND CIVILIZATION: SOUTHERN PAIUTE “TRUE STORIES” OF
ANIMAL-HUMAN RELATIONS ....................................................................................51
By Robert Franklin

CHAPTER SIX. THE SHOSHONE GHOST DANCE AND NUMIC MYTH:
COMMON HERITAGE, COMMON THEMES ..............................................................61
By Judith Vander

CHAPTER SEVEN. RECALLING THE PAST IN CREATING THE PRESENT:
TOPOGRAPHY REFERENCES IN COMANCHE NARRATIVES ................................81
By Daniel J. Gelo

CHAPTER EIGHT. TOWARDS A NATURAL HISTORY OF THE NUMA ....................95
By L. Daniel Myers

CHAPTER NINE. ETIOLOGY AND IDEOLOGY IN THE GREAT BASIN ..............103
By David S. Whitley

ENDNOTES ...................................................................................................................117
REFERENCES CITED .................................................................................................127